Dear Mr. Gouthro:

On behalf of APEGBC, thank you for your significant contribution to the Annual Conference '99, Lifelong Learning for a Changing World. It was one of our most successful both in terms of turn out and response to the session offerings. Comments from Conference participants indicated that they were very pleased with their experiences at the event.

We appreciate the time and resources you devoted to ensuring that participants would engage with your topic. Providing relevant continuing professional development offerings forms an essential part of helping to maintain standards in practice.

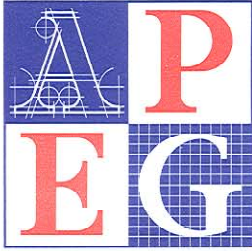

Thank you for your interest in supporting excellence in CPD for the members. If you are aware of any courses which could be posted on the CPD Database at our Web-site, or if you have any additional ideas for ongoing learning, we would be most pleased to receive them.

Sincerely,

Madeleine Butschler
CPD Coordinator

I would like to thank you for your significant contribution to our 2000 Annual Conference, Charting New Directions for Professional Growth. As you no doubt noticed, it was indeed a very successful event, both in terms of turnout and response to the session offerings. Comments from conference participants indicated that they were very pleased with their experiences at the event.

Providing relevant continuing professional development (CPD) offerings forms an essential part of the Association's efforts to maintain high standards of practice. The time and resources you devoted to ensuring that participants would engage with your topic are much appreciated.

Again, thank you for your interest in supporting and fostering professional development excellence in APEGBC members. If you are aware of any courses that could be posted on the Association's web-based CPD database, or if you have any additional ideas for ongoing learning, we would be most pleased to receive them.

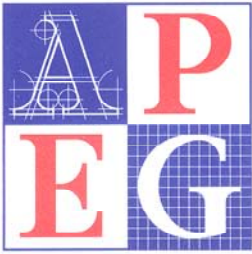

Yours truly,

Wayne Gibson, P.Eng.
Director, Communications

Dear David:

Thanks again for being the speaker at the Secretary & Registrars monthly luncheon meeting. As always, your presentation on personal courage was provocative, entertaining, and of value to those in attendance. You have a great blend of style and substance which results in a very effective presentation for the audience. I look forward to us continuing to work together in the future.

If I can be of any assistance to you, don't hesitate to call.

Yours truly,

E. John Bremner, P.Eng.
Executive Director & Registrar
