CONFERENCE 2001

OCTOBER 21 – 23, 2001

THE WESTIN CALGARY

CALGARY, ALBERTA

May 21, 2001

To Whom It May Concern;

I am very pleased to provide a letter of recommendation for David Gouthro in relation to my experience with him as a keynote presenter and Master of Ceremonies.

David took on the role of being Conference MC last year at the national Health, Work & Wellness Conference 2000 in Toronto. This conference attracts 500-600 delegates from across the country each year. David was, without a doubt, the best MC we have had in our five years of operation. His humour, personality and facilitation skills shine in this role.

He also provided the final, wrap-up keynote for Conference 2000, which is a difficult job – pulling together and synthesizing what has occurred during the conference. He found many innovative ways to effectively meet this need, by pulling together a panel of delegates to provide their views, by showing a videotape of other delegates views during the wrap-up, and by providing his own inspiring messages on courage and leadership.

Some of the comments received from the conference delegates relating to both of these roles included:

“The positive, energizing presentation of David Gouthro sent us out of the conference positively rejuvenated!”

“David Gouthro was an excellent MC and I hope he returns to Calgary!”

“I liked David’s enthusiasm & energy; great anecdotes.”

“Mr. Gouthro is fantastic. Excellent choice! He truly lives up to his company’s name “Moving & Shaking”!!

Based on the overwhelming response from our delegates, we have asked David to join us again to MC this year’s “Health, Work & Wellness: Building Sound Investments” Conference in Calgary, Alberta.

David brings a great deal of passion and energy to his presentations. He is also a very caring human being that audiences immediately warm up to.

Sincerely,

Deborah Jones
